Bourbon Fair, Sept. 2-4.

There will be no service at the Christian Church next Sunday.

Carter were granted license to wed, Aug. 6th.

The sultriness of the weather for a good many days has been phenomenal.

B. H. Ross sold to Samuel Lathram, of Prickly Ash, one calf, to be taken in October, for $10.

Elder Elbert Dawson will preach at Slate bridge on the Preston pike next Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m.

building; also a dwelling house.

There is no change in the tobacco market worth quoting. There are no sales in Louisville this week.

W. T. Lathram, of Naylor's Branch, sold to J. W. Dawson three-teen feeding steers to be taken in October at $2.25.

the reunion of the Cartmill G. A.
R. Post at Midland City, Aug. 20th to 22d.

the other was com-accepting $100 damages and agreeing to throw open the road.

THE WELL.—The well was down 525 feet Tuesday afternoon. The blue limestone had been passed, and after going a short distance through clay a gray limestone mixed with flint was reached.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The last quarterly meeting for the Owingsville circuit, M. E. Church, South, will be held at Salt Well schoolhouse on the fifth Saturday and Sunday in August. Preaching morning and night both days.

CHERRY GROVE.—Elder Amos Kendall had six additions to the church at his preaching at Cherry grove Sunday. He improved the occasion to call the attention of the people to the need of a church building there and probably will prompt them to build one.

BANK STOCK SALE.—The executors of the late E. E. Pearce, of Flemingsburg, sold at public sale

NARROW ESCAPE.—On last Friday C. H. Hoan was showing his new coffin cabinet to T. D. Anderson. He was down the swinging doors that hold the coffin in place, and the weight overbalanced the whole cabinet, which weighed 2,000 pounds, and it tumbled over. Mr.
Hoan and Mr. Anderson jumped just in time to escape being crushed under it.

A LETTER.—Lee's Lick, Harrison
Co., Ky. August 2d, 1896.—Mr.
D. S. Estill: Find enclosed one dollar for the renewal of my subscription to THE OUTLOOK; and excuse my negligence, as my family has been sick.

We have a great deal of rain here and splendid crops. This is a good country, but I like Scott better. I would like to pay Bath one more visit, but I guess I would see but very few faces that I could recognize, though I would be so glad to see the few that are left.

THE OUTLOOK is my favorite, and may it ever prosper. E. J. HALL.

FOR SHERIFF.—Johnson M. Atchison, of Wyoming precinct, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Bath county.
Mr. Atchison is a well-to-do farmer and a man widely known for his good citizenship, hospitality and many generous qualities. He has always been a Democrat and a party worker. He will be grateful for your support and respectfully submits his candidacy to the Democratic party.

TO THE DEMOCRACY OF BATH CO.
—Please permit me to submit my name for your consideration, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff.
My friends have strongly urged me to come before the councils of my party and await the final result, in November, 1897. I promise them to do my best to win it, and, if elected, will faithfully serve them, and the people of our county, as an officer. Hoping this will meet your approval, I beg to remain, Yours faithfully,
J. M. ATCHISON.

ANOTHER G. A. R. REUNION.— The Thos. Clark Post, G. A. R., of Owingsville, will hold its first annual reunion at Preston on September 24th, 25th and 26th, 1896.
The Committee on Arrangements is composed of Thos. Copher, Felix Clark, David Ratliff, James K.
Jackson and John S. Anderson.
The booth privileges will be rented; seated bids for same received by J.
K. Jackson, at Olympia, the right being reserved to reject any or all bids. All Mexican, Confederate and Federal soldiers are invited.
There will be able speakers, a good cornet band, and a procession twice a day. All the side attractions will be there. A great time is anticipated.

COLORADO PICNIC.—There will be a grand picnic on Kimbrough's lot Thursday, Sept. 3d, by the U. B. S.
No. 29 of Owingsville, which day will be the third day of the Convention of the U. B. S. Grand Lodge in session here. The members and delegates will turn out in a body with the home lodge. Music by the R. S. Johnson Brass Band of Mt. Sterling; speaking by geon. Ice water and various kinds of refreshment on the grounds.

Procession will form at U. B. S.
Hall at 9 o'clock a. m. and parade on the town streets, thence to the picnic grounds. Admission, adults, 15c; children, 10c. Robert Foley, President; Thos. Foley, A. L. Powers and N. T. Johnson, Committee.

SUBTROPICAL THIS SUMMER.— There need be no question longer that Owingsville this summer has "enjoyed" a climate subtropical in humid, hot temperature. Samuel Atchison, clerk in Catlett & Honaker's store, found in the store and shown to us Monday a lemon with green-tipped sprout protruding through the rind. A rough dissection showed that the lemon was sound and fairly juicy, but contained more or less curled up inside, eight infant lemon plants that had sprouted from that many of the seeds of the fruit under examination. Two of the sprouts had stems full two inches long, all had stems and roots, and all but one had green tips to the stems, while in some of the seed husks the pair of cotyledons, or seed leaves, were already taking the leaf shape and greenish-yellow tinge. When the climate sprouts the seeds in a sound lemon it may be reasonably concluded that it has been "hot enough for you."

COURT DAY.—There was a good sized crowd here Monday. Politics was the liveliest topic. Silver speakers were made at the Court-house by Col. Tom Turner, of Mt. Sterling; J. A. W. Bascom, of Bath; Courtland Chenault, of Mt. Sterling; George Shroat, of Bath. A Bryan-club roll was industriously circulated and many signers were secured.

Several bunches of cattle were offered and sold early at good prices.
A good many hogs, sows and shoats were sold, the stock hogs going at about 3 cents. Three bunches of sheep were sold. There was some trade in horses and mules.
Jessie Turney, of Bourbon Co., bought two suckling mules at $35 and $40 respectively.

The merchants' trade was an improvement over last Court day.
Some had a big trade and fair collections. Money seemed more plentiful than for some time. The banks did a fair business.

JUDGE GOODPASTER'S WITHDRAWAL LETTER.—To the Editor of THE OUTLOOK. Dear Sir:—

I notice in the last issue of your paper the announcement of the withdrawal of Judge C. W. Good-paster for the Circuit Judge nomination and also the letter in which he plainly and philosophically sets forth his reason for not remaining on the track. I have heard it talked around on the street, and to some extent, that he is a bolter and would vote for McKinley. I defy any man to show me in his letter any place where he said he would support Mr. McKinley, or anything that would lead to a supposition of that sort. It was a letter of patriotism such as one seldom reads and it was only because he was not the parasite to issue a second edition of cards, like other candidates, and accept with coun-pelled infamy what he believed to be a degraded and debased platform, that he withdrew from the race.

In saying that his duty on the election day was plain, he only cherishes the hope that wiser council will prevail and he will be given a candidate who did not make his debut into the political world under the supervision of Blackburn, Tillman, Stewart and Teller. It seems strange to say he is a bolter.
He had remained on the track he had every reason to believe that the free-silver men would certainly oppose him. Then when every obstacle that might have prompted mercenary motives had been removed and he had withdrawn, why should he then throw his vote to that which seemed to him Populism, fanaticism and Anarchism?

Will for him say why he is not for Bryan? It is because a spark from the very altar of patriotism alighted on his heart which he has cherished and watched with more than vigilant vigilance and which, at a time when his country's integrity and credit trembled in the balance, has ignited into a glowing and effulgent flame.

And in a few years when this temporary aberration shall have passed and defeat shall have drawn us back together, I feel sure that many who now proclaim him a bolter will be willing and among the foremost to extol his wisdom and courage.

Respectfully,
N. DAME.

Ill., our ex-townman, came last

Mark is very fleshy now and is hard to recognize. The West evidently agrees with him.

Uncle Jefferson Rice, of the county, mixing with his friends. The old cle Bill says he wants to give one more vote for President and that

It seems Billy Bryan does not take kindly to Tom Watson. Billy had better have a little care how he treats the Populists. Without them he cannot have any hopes of an election. They are only honor bound so far as they are represented as partners; if not they pull themselves free.

The hitherto peaceful little hamlet of Salt Lick Wednesday night of last week was shocked to hear three reports of a pistol ring out in quick succession. After the smoke had cleared away it was found that a man by the name of Landsaw had been summoned to his last account. The party doing the killing was by the name of Sloan. He escaped. The people of Salt Lick can congratulate themselves that neither was a citizen of their town.

The silver cranks still keep turning on the silver organ continues to grind. A correspondent from this town is taking a very active part in support of Bryan and his platform. Mr. Lane is posing as a Democrat who stands by the Democratic party and nominees and moreover, is rushing into print in what is really offensive activity in a personal way in support of Populism. It is notorious that this same John B. Lane has not been actively in the Democratic party for years, but has been active in trying to cripple the Democratic party by preaching agrarianism and Populism and such undemocratic ideas and has positively refused to give his support to various Democratic nominees. The Democratic party workers know this to be true, for they solicited his support and were rebuffed by him. In view of this isn't it cheeky for him to profess to preach party duty to Democrats who have always supported the party when he did not?

I predict that the time isn't far off when these Popocrats will be tired of being called Free Silverites and will want another handle to their name.

past difficulties about Sloan's wife heart and died almost instantly.

Both men were strangers here.
